AGRICULTURAL HISTORY

The Quarterly Journal of the Agricultural History Society

Agricultural History is designed as a medium for the publication of research and documents pertaining to the history of agriculture in all its phases and as a clearinghouse for information of interest and value to workers in the field. Materials on the history of agriculture in all countries are included, and also materials on institutions, organizations, and sciences which have been factors in agricultural development. The Society is not responsible for the statements or opinions of contributors. Editorial communications including manuscripts submitted for publication and books for review should be addressed to Vernon Carstensen, Editor, Department of Agricultural Economics, University of Wisconsin, Madison 6, Wisc.

All members of the Agricultural History Society receive Agricultural History. The memberships are: Student, $2.00; annual, $4.00; contributing, $10.00; life, $133.00, inclusive of all previous payments of dues and contributions, or a sum in U. S. dollars equivalent to 133 less the age of the applicant at his or her last birthday, exclusive of prior dues and contributions; joint membership with the Economic History Association, $8.00; and joint membership with the Economic History Association and the Economic History Society (England), $11.00. Single current numbers, $1.25. Reprints, if available, 25 and 50 cents each, according to size. An annual subscription to Agricultural History is $4.00 net. Communications regarding memberships, subscriptions, and other business matters should be addressed to Wayne D. Rasmussen, Secretary-Treasurer, Room 3906, So. Agr. Bldg., U. S. Agricultural Marketing Service, Washington 25, D. C.
